

The Fruit of the Spirit - Peace

Galatians 5:22 and Selected Passages

Three Program Notes:

1. The world into which Jesus was born had a very different understanding of _____ than we do today.
2. There is a sense in which the New Testament begins with peace and ends with _____.
3. There seem to be four major _____ upon which the peace of God travels (Galatians 5:22; John 16:33; Psalm 119:165; Philippians 4:6, 7).

Top Ten Biblical Principles of Peace:

10. Paul prays for your peace “at all _____ and in every way” (2 Thessalonians 3:16).
9. There is _____ more peace available to you than you might expect (1 Peter 1:2; 2 Peter 1:2)
8. Your peace must _____ with God because Scripture calls God the “God of peace” (1 Thessalonians 5:23; Romans 15:33; Isaiah 9:6).

7. Jesus Christ offers to give you an incredible peace unlike the _____ could ever give (John 14:27).
6. Your peace will have a direct correlation to your ability to _____ on God (Isaiah 26:3, 4).
5. Your peace will have a direct correlation to your ability to internalize _____.
4. Your peace is directly connected to how you respond to God’s _____ (Hebrews 12:11).
3. Your peace will have a direct correlation with your willingness to _____ in difficult times (Philippians 4:6, 7).
2. It’s impossible for you to be at peace with _____ (Hebrews 12:14; Proverbs 16:7; Matthew 10:34).
1. You must make your peace _____ God before you can experience the peace _____ God (Romans 5:1).