

Is the Universe Silent?
Psalm 19
Pastor Steven E. LoVelle

God speaks to humans in two distinct ways and humans owe God the _____ of a response!

I. God speaks to you...prolifically and generally...through His _____ (Psalm 19:1-6).

A. God's speech is _____ (Psalm 19:1-2).

B. God's speech doesn't involve literal spoken _____ (Psalm 19:3).

C. God's speech is _____ (Psalm 19:4).

D. God's speech involves the _____ (Psalm 19:4-6).

II. God's speaks to you...thoroughly and specifically... through His _____ (Psalm 19:7-11).

A. Gods' Word (Law) _____ you (Psalm 19:7a).

B. God's Word (Statutes) makes you _____ (Psalm 19:7b).

C. God's Word (Precepts) gives you _____ (Psalm 19:8a).

D. God's Word (Commands) " _____ your eyes" (Psalm 19:8b).

E. God's Word endures forever; it's more valuable than _____ and sweeter than _____ (Psalm 19:9-10).

F. God's Word _____ you (Psalm 19:11).

G. God's Word _____ you...greatly (Psalm 19:11).

III. God's speech to you, through His skies and Scriptures, demands a personal _____ from you (Psalm 19:12-14).

A. Like David, your personal response to God begins by addressing your _____ (Psalm 19:12-13).

1. Your _____ sins (Psalm 19:12).

2. Your willful and _____ sins (Psalm 19:13).

B. Like David, your personal response to God ends by acknowledging God as your Rock and Redeemer (Psalm 19:14).

1. Do you personally respond to God as your _____ (Psalm 19:14; Psalm 61:2)?

2. Do you personally respond to God as your _____ (Psalm 19:14; Job 19:25-27)?
